General Questions about the Settlement

1. What is a Class Proceeding or a Class Action?

In a class proceeding / class action, one or more people called “plaintiffs” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are called a “class” or “class members.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected, except for those who exclude themselves from the lawsuits. A class member becomes excluded from the class proceeding / class action by “opting out”.

2. What is the Federal Indian Day School class action/proceeding about?

The legal action, McLean v Canada (Court File No. T-2169-16), was brought to recover compensation for class members from Canada for harms suffered by students who attended a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School. Students of Federal Indian Day Schools or Federal Day Schools have reported suffering physical, sexual, and psychological abuse by teaching staff, officials, students and other third parties. In some cases, the abuse was severe. These abuses were in addition to the mocking, denigration and humiliation of students by reason of their Indigenous culture and language. Through McLean v Canada, the Plaintiffs have sought the recognition of and justice for the harms inflicted on former students of Day Schools and their family members.

The legal action was certified on consent as a class proceeding by Justice Phelan of the Federal Court on June 21, 2018. The case was started by Garry McLean, who passed away before a Settlement was reached. The Court has appointed Roger Augustine and Claudette Commanda as Representative Plaintiffs for the Survivor Class and Mariette Buckshot as Representative Plaintiff for the Family Class. They may be contacted through Class Counsel.

3. The term “Indian” is outdated, not inclusive, and even offensive. Why use it?

Using this word was not an easy choice, because we recognize that it has negative connotations for many people. Federal “Indian Day Schools” were created under Canada’s “Indian Act,” which applied to First Nations, Inuit, and Métis peoples. The schools, and their name, reflect the dark reality of Canada’s history with Indigenous peoples. This settlement sheds important light on that history.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Federal Court has now approved a Canada-wide out-of-court settlement between Canada and Class Members in relation to Canada’s establishment, funding, control, and management of Federal Indian Day Schools and Federal Day Schools. Following the Settlement Approval Hearing held on May 13th to 15th, 2019 in Winnipeg, Manitoba, the Federal Court has determined that the settlement reached between Canada and the Class is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Class as a whole.

As a result of reaching a settlement and having it approved by the Federal Court, the parties have avoided the uncertainty of the outcome of a trial, the potential delays in obtaining a final judgment and the likelihood of significant costs related to lawsuit of this size and complexity.

In addition to compensation to be received by individual Survivor Class Members, the approved settlement provides for benefits that would not be available under a judgment, such as the establishment of a $200,000,000 (CDN) Legacy Fund to support commemoration projects, health and wellness projects, and language and culture initiatives.

5. What rights do I give up, if any, by being a part of this settlement?

The settlement is now approved. The Court’s approval of this Settlement is binding on all class members who did not opt out by November 18, 2019.

If you did NOT opt out of the Settlement, you will be unable to advance a lawsuit of your own relating to harms caused through Canada’s management and control of Day Schools. In other words, you have given up your right to bring an individual lawsuit against the Federal government for harms experienced as a result of attending a Federal Indian Day School or a Federal Day School.

If you did NOT opt out of the Settlement, you will be deemed to have “released” Canada from liability for all harms suffered by you at the Day School(s) you attended. In return however, and if eligible, you will receive compensation for the harms that you experienced while attending a Federal Indian Day School or a Federal Day School, subject to meeting the requirements outlined in the Claim Form.

The Settlement Agreement provides a specific description of the Release. Please read the Settlement Agreement carefully and contact Class Counsel if you have any questions. The details of the Release are also available in the Order of the Federal Court approving the Settlement.

Finally, nothing in this Settlement requires you to give up your right to sue a province or religious institution for its involvement in its management or control of a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School.

6. Who is included in the Settlement?

Former Federal Indian Day School and Federal Day School students ("Survivor Class Members") and their family members ("Family Class Members") are included in this settlement.

To be eligible for compensation as a Survivor Class Member, the Claimant must have attended at least one of the identified Day Schools during the time that it was operated and/or controlled by Canada and must have suffered a recognized harm as a result of that school attendance. The identified Day Schools are listed on Schedule K to the Settlement Agreement, available on the Class Action website. Each eligible Survivor Class Member will be required to provide supporting material for his or her claim.

Survivor Class Members who passed away on or after July 31, 2007 may also be eligible to receive compensation. All payments will be made to the Estate (issued to: Estate of "Claimant Name") and mailed to the Estate Executor.

Family Class Members will receive no direct compensation under the Settlement. Instead, a $200,000,000 (CDN) Legacy Fund is being established to support projects for commemoration, wellness/healing, and the restoration and preservation of Indigenous languages and culture.

7. Why does the deceased date only go back as far as July 31, 2007?

This was not an arbitrary date that was chosen by the parties, but rather based upon the original filing date of 2009, and the application of the general 2-year limitation period. The Indian Day School class action was filed in 2009 so the cut-off date is July 31, 2007 for this case.

8. Who is eligible for the Settlement?

To be eligible for compensation, survivors must have attended one of the identified Day Schools listed on the List of Federal Day Schools (Schedule K) and experienced harm.

9. I attended an Indian Day School, but I'm not sure who ran it. Am I eligible?

Some Day Schools were run by entities other than the Federal government, for example by provincial governments. This settlement only applies to those who attended Federally-run and operated schools. To find out if your school was Federally-operated, please review the list of approved Day Schools (Schedule K) or contact Gowling WLG directly by calling the toll free phone number: 1 (844) 539-3815 or by visiting www.IndianDaySchools.com.

10. What if I am not sure if I am eligible or included in the Settlement?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the settlement, you may contact Class Counsel by calling the toll free phone number: 1 (844) 539-3815 or by visiting www.IndianDaySchools.com.

If you have you questions about the class action and administration process, you may contact the Administrator by calling the toll free phone number: 1 (888) 221-2898 or by visiting www.IndianDaySchoolsClaims.com.

11. If I am eligible for compensation and did not opt-out of this settlement, can I still sue a provincial or religious institution?

Yes. Nothing in the settlement agreement prohibits you from bringing a suit against a province, religious institution, or any entity, other than the Federal Government, for harms you experienced at a school run by them.

12. What if I have already started my own legal proceeding against Canada for harms I suffered while attending a Federal Day School? Am I still eligible for compensation under the terms of this settlement?

If you have started your own legal proceeding against Canada relating to its funding, control, and management of Day Schools and you did not discontinue it on or before the opt out deadline, November 18th, 2019, you will be considered to have opted out of the settlement. You will not be eligible to apply for compensation under this class action.

13. Can I remove myself from the Settlement?

The Order of the Court will bind all of the Class Members who do not opt out of the proceeding (Federal Courts Rules, Rule 334.32(5)(f)).

If you are an Eligible Class Member, in order to remove yourself from the Settlement, you must have delivered a signed and dated Opt-Out Form before the end of the Opt Out period. The Opt Out Period is ninety (90) days after the Federal Court approves the Settlement Agreement.

The opt-out period concluded on November 18, 2019 and is now closed.

If you have previously commenced a legal proceeding against Canada relating to its funding, control, and management of a Federal Indian Day School and if did not discontinue your individual claim on or before November 18, 2019, you are deemed to have opted out of the settlement.

14. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement provides direct compensation to Survivor Class Members who experienced harm while they were a student at a listed Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School during the relevant period (“Eligible Class Members”). The listed Day Schools are provided in Schedule K of the Settlement Agreement.

The Settlement Agreement also provides $200,000,000 (CDN) to support commemoration projects, health and wellness projects, and language and culture initiatives. This compensation will be made available as proposal-based funding by the McLean Day Schools Settlement Corporation, which will distribute the money to existing organizations and initiatives.

Eligible Class Members will be required to apply to the Claims Administrator in order to receive compensation. Canada has agreed to pay compensation to Eligible Class Members in accordance with the severity of harms they suffered while attending a Day School listed on Schedule K. The severity of harm is measured against a Harms Assessment Grid that contains five (5) levels of compensation. The level and associated compensation are the following:

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5
$10,000	$50,000	$100,000	$150,000	$200,000

Under the Settlement, Eligible Class Members will receive a single payment associated with the most severe harm they suffered while attending a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School, regardless of the number of schools attended. Each level of harm contains validation requirements.

15. Are there any fees or costs associated with participating in this settlement?

No. There are no legal fees or costs associated with applying for compensation. To be eligible for compensation, you must have attended one of the identified Day Schools listed on Schedule K, and experienced harm.

If you have questions, contact Class Counsel Gowling WLG, at no cost, by calling 1-844- 539-3815 or emailing dayschools@gowlingwlq.com.

16. Who are the lawyers for the Plaintiffs?

A. Which Law Firm is acting as Class Counsel?

Gowling WLG (Canada) LLP was appointed as Class Counsel by Justice Phelan of the Federal Court on June 21, 2018.

Lead Class Counsel are Robert Winogron, Jeremy Bouchard and Mary M. Thomson of the law firm, Gowling WLG (Canada) LLP. Mr. Winogron and Mr. Bouchard have over 30 years of combined legal experience in the area of Aboriginal Law and Litigation. Ms. Thomson is a class action specialist and has more than 35 years of litigation experience. Gowling WLG (Canada) LLP is a national law firm, which is consistently recognized for its representative work on behalf of Indigenous organizations across Canada.

B. May I retain another lawyer (non- class Counsel) to assist with the submission of my claim?

Yes. Class members may retain Non-Class Counsel to represent them in the Claims Process. Class members will receive all communications related to their claim directly from the Administrator. Eligible class members who are due compensation will be paid directly by cheque (issued in the class member's name and mailed to the class member's home address), unless a person is under disability or issued to an estate.

Class members may not be charged fees by counsel unless they have prior court approval to do so. It is recommended that class members request, from their counsel, a copy of the court approval for such fees before paying any fees. Pursuant to R. 334.4 of the Federal Court Rules, no payments including those by indirect payment can be made to a solicitor from the proceeds recovered in a class proceeding without the approval of the Court. For Indian Day Schools, the judge for the matter has held that such approval must be sought by counsel after the relevant legal services have been provided.

17. How are the lawyers getting paid?

Canada has agreed to pay Class Counsel fees and disbursement directly. No portion of Class Counsel Fees will come from compensation paid to Survivor Class Members or to the Legacy Fund.

Class Counsel fees have been approved by the Federal Court in the amount of $55,000,000 (CDN) plus applicable taxes.

The Court has also approved $7,000,000 (CDN) to be paid by Canada to Class Counsel for legal services in support of Class Members during the Claims Process. All legal fees and disbursements including those of Class Counsel are subject to Court approval.

There is no charge to Class Members who receive assistance from Class Counsel during the Claims Process.

18. What is the Legacy Fund?

The settlement includes a $200M Legacy Fund to support commemoration projects, health and wellness programs, “truth-telling” events and the restoration and preservation of Indigenous languages and culture (‘Legacy Projects’).

The money to support the Fund will be paid by Canada to the McLean Day Schools Settlement Corporation (“Corporation”). The Corporation will be established under the Canada Not-for-Profit Corporations Act to promote Legacy Projects. The Directors of the Corporation will manage and/or supervise the management of the activities and affairs of the Corporation that will receive, hold, invest, manage, and disburse the money allocated for the Legacy Fund. In carrying out their responsibilities to fund Legacy Projects, the Directors will give consideration to periodic recommendations and advice from the Day Schools Advisory Committee described in the Legacy Fund Distribution Plan (See Schedule J of the Final Settlement Agreement for more information).

19. How do I apply for the Legacy Fund?

Grants will be made from the McLean Day Schools Settlement Corporation in response to proposals made. There will be guidelines and procedures put in place for the selection of organizations that apply for these grants. If an organization is given a grant, it will be responsible for carrying out a Legacy Project in its community.

Once set up, the McLean Day Schools Settlement Corporation will develop and make available the guidelines and procedures for organizations to follow in applying for grants under the Legacy Fund.

Compensation

20. What if I also attended a Residential School and received a Common Experience Payment from the Residential School settlement? Can I still apply for compensation?

Yes. As long as you attended an Eligible Federal Indian Day School at some point while it was operated and managed by the Government of Canada, and experienced harm, you would be eligible to apply for compensation under the settlement.

21. What if I objected to the terms of the settlement before the settlement was approved? Am I still eligible for compensation?

Yes. Even if you objected to the settlement you are still eligible for compensation. Objecting is not the same as opting out.

Opting out means choosing to remove yourself from the Class. Those who chose to opt out will receive no compensation under this settlement. They will however retain the right to bring their own action against Canada for harms suffered while in a Federal Indian Day School or a Federal Day School should they so wish. The Opt Out period is now closed.

If you have any questions, please call Class Counsel by calling 1 (844) 539-3815.

22. What does the settlement include in terms of compensation?

Eligible Class Members will receive a payment ranging from $10,000 to $200,000, reflecting the most severe harms they suffered while attending an Indian Day School. The number of schools attended or the length of time spent at the school does not impact the level of compensation.

The settlement recognizes that harm was experienced not only by individual people, but also by families and whole communities. That is why it also includes a $200M Legacy Fund to support commemoration projects, health and wellness programs, as well as language and culture initiatives for Indigenous communities

23. How will compensation be distributed?

The Claims Administrator (Administrator) is responsible for distributing individual compensation to Survivor Class Members. Compensation will be distributed in the form of a cheque payable to the Claimant. For eligible Survivor Class Members who passed away on or after July 31, 2007, payments will be made to their Estate (issued to: Estate of "Claimant Name") and mailed to the Estate Executor.

24. Will my compensation be taxed or have an impact on insurance payments, pensions, social assistance, etc.?

Social Benefits

The Settlement Agreement provides that there should not be an impact on benefits including social assistance, OAS, and CPP. (See 5.06 of Settlement Agreement).

The Government of Canada has committed to working with provincial and territorial governments, and federal departments to ensure that any payment that Claimants receive will not affect the amount, nature, or duration of any social benefits received. Similar efforts were successful with respect to the Indian Residential School Settlement payments and we will continue to raise this issue with Canada.

Tax

Payments from this lawsuit are not taxable. Payments from the McLean Day School Class Action compensate for abuse and harms at Federal Day Schools. The Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") makes it clear that litigation damages for personal injuries are not taxable income. Further, they will not impact social benefits.

Old Age Security and its Supplement

There will be no impact. The Old Act Security Act defines income in accordance with the Income Tax Act. Litigation payments for personal injury, including psychological harm, are exempt from the Canadian Revenue Agency's definition of income.

The OAS pension is a monthly payment available to seniors aged 65 and older who meet the Canadian legal status and residence requirements. Low-income seniors are also eligible for the Guaranteed Income Supplement which is added to OAS. Neither will be impacted.

Canada Pension Plan (CPP) (Pension)

There will be no impact. Eligibility for CPP is based on age and contribution to CPP by working in Canada. It is not based on present income levels but contributions over the beneficiaries' lifetime.

25. Who decides what level of compensation I am eligible for under the Settlement?

On the Claims Form, you are required to identify which level of compensation you are claiming (Levels 1 or 2 or 3 or 4 or 5).

If you are an Eligible Class Member and have not previously been compensated for your attendance at a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School, the Claims Administrator will assess your Claim and approve a level of compensation in accordance with the Harms Assessment Grid.

If the Claims Administrator approves your claim for a lower level of compensation and you believe you are entitled to receive a higher level of compensation under the Harms Assessment Grid, you have the option to provide further information and to have your claim reconsidered. You will then be notified of the Claims Administrator's reconsideration.

If the Claims Administrator confirms its initial assessment of a lower level of compensation, you will have the option of having your claim reviewed by a Third-Party Assessor. The decision of the Third-Party Assessor is final.

In unique and specific situations, the Third-Party Assessor may refer a Claim to the Exceptions Committee for consideration. In these situations, the Exceptions Committee will make the final determination of your Claim.

26. Can I sign a Claims Form for a family member who is applying for compensation?

To sign the Claims Form for another person, you must be appointed as their Personal Representative. A Personal Representative is appointed by a Court to manage or make reasonable judgements or decisions in respect of the affairs of the person under disability.

If you are acting as a Personal Representative, you must attach documentation to verify your eligibility to act on the Claimant's behalf, including evidence that you have Power of Attorney over the Claimant's finances.

See Part 7 of Claim Form for more details or contact Class Counsel or the Administrator.

27. What if I am not satisfied with or disagree with the level of compensation awarded?

If you are an Eligible Class Member and have not previously been compensated for your attendance at a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School, the Claims Administrator will assess your Claim and approve a level of compensation in accordance with the Harms Assessment Grid.

If the Claims Administrator approves your claim for a lower level of compensation than the level you believe you are entitled to receive under the Harms Assessment Grid (and the Level you claimed when submitting your Claim Form), you have the option to provide further information and to have your claim re-assessed in light of that further information. You will then be notified of the Claims Administrator's re-assessment.

If the Claims Administrator confirms its initial assessment, you will have the option of having your claim reviewed by a Third Party Assessor.

The decision of the Third Party Assessor is final. If the Third Party Assessor is unable to make a decision, the Third-Party Assessor will refer your Claim to the Exceptions Committee for consideration. In these situations, the Exceptions Committee will make the final determination of your Claim.

More information on this process can be found in Schedule B of the Settlement Agreement.

28. When will I receive my payment?

To receive compensation under the approved Settlement, Class Members are required to submit a completed Claim Form to the Claims Administrator.

The Claim Form is available on the websites of the Claims Administrator and Class Counsel. Compensation will be issued after the Administrator has reviewed the claim and all supporting documents in accordance with the Claims Process outlined in the Settlement Agreement.

Eligible Class Members will receive compensation after their Claim Form has been:

- (1) reviewed and approved by the Claims Administrator; and
- (2) for level 2-5 claims only, the Government Canada has reviewed for eligibility (60 to 90 days).

If the Claims Administrator requires additional information to review a claim, the time required to review and approve the Claim Form may increase. Sending a complete Claim Form and all required documents to the Administrator helps to reduce the chance of delays during review.

29. How do I make a claim for compensation?

Eligible Class Members are able to apply for compensation starting on Implementation Date. An Estate Executor may submit a Claim Form for a deceased Class Member who passed away (after July 31, 2007) but before they submitted a Claim Form on their own behalf.

To receive compensation under the approved Settlement, Class Members are required to submit a completed Claim Form to the Claims Administrator.

Class Counsel is available to assist with the completion of each Claimant's form however a Claim Form must be signed and submitted by the class member, either directly to the Claims Administrator or by Class Counsel on request.

Class Members will have two and a half (2.5) years from Implementation Date to complete and submit the Claim Form to the Administrator.

The Claim Form is available on the website of Class Counsel and Administrator or by calling the Claims Administrator at 1-888-221-2898.

The Claims Administrator will review each Claims Form to make one of three determinations: (1) approve the claim; (2) deny the claim; or (3) request additional information.

If your Claim is approved, you will receive compensation based on the Harms Assessment Grid attached to the Settlement Agreement and available on the websites of Class Counsel and Administrator. The compensation will be paid directly either to you, your court-appointed representative, or, in the event of your death, your estate trustee.

30. What if my claim for compensation gets denied?

The Claims Administrator will notify you if your claim is denied.

Your Claim will be denied if (i) you are not an Eligible Class Member; (ii) you have already been compensated, in another proceeding, for your attendance at a Federal Indian Day School or Federal Day School; or (iii) you removed yourself from this Settlement by submitting an Opt Out Form.

31. Are family members eligible to receive compensation on behalf of a deceased family member who attended a Federal Indian Day School or a Federal Day School?

No. Family members are not eligible to receive direct compensation.

However, the estate of a late Class Member who died on or after July 31, 2007 can make a claim on behalf of the deceased. If the deceased has no will or executor, then a representative will need to be appointed. This process will depend on whether the deceased ordinarily resided on reserve or not.

Deceased lived on reserve

To start this process, you will need a copy of the Death Certificate. If the deceased claimant lived on reserve prior to passing away, we recommend you call the Regional Office in your area to be appointed as the Estate Administrator.

INAC Public Enquiries Contact Centre – This is a resource for estates of individuals who lived on reserve.

Email: aadnc.infopubs.aandc@canada.ca

Phone (toll-free): 1-800-567-9604

Representatives of estates should begin the estate administration process as soon as possible. The deadline to submit a Claim Form is July 13, 2022. If a Survivor passed away between July 31, 2007 and today, the estate of that person can make a claim on their behalf.

If you have questions, please call Class Counsel, Gowling WLG: 1-844-539-3815. Please note that Class Counsel does not provide estate litigation advice to Class Members.

Deceased lived off reserve

If the deceased claimant lived off-reserve, the representative will need to be appointed as an executor or administrator. It may be that the local Public Trustee Office is already administering the deceased's estate. You may wish to contact them before taking further steps. The appointment of an executor or administrator is a process governed by your local jurisdiction (i.e. provincial or territorial courts). You will need to start the appointment process with the court to become the estate executor or administrator.

Please note that Class Counsel, Gowling WLG does not handle estate disputes or estate litigation. Independent legal advice is recommended prior to taking steps to start a court process for the executor or administrator appointment.

Claims Process

32. What is the Implementation Date?

The Implementation Date is the date on which the Claims Process in the Settlement Agreement goes into effect. This date is defined in the Settlement Agreement as 30 days after the Opt Out Deadline (November 18, 2019) and subject to the final determination of any appeals of the Settlement Approval Order.

Eligible Claimants will receive compensation after the Implementation Date.

The Implementation Date is now confirmed to be January 13, 2020.

33. Will the Claims Process be complicated or difficult?

The claims process is designed to be simple and easy for people to use. It will avoid re-traumatizing survivors. 50. What is an "Indian Day School"?

Federal Indian Day Schools and Federal Day Schools include all those schools established or designated as such by the Federal Departments of Indian Affairs and Northern Affairs and National Resources in which Indigenous students across Canada were required to attend by law (the Indian Act, Orders in Council, Territorial Ordinances and other legislation), and were funded in part or solely by the Government of Canada.

Unlike Indian Residential Schools, students did not reside at Day Schools. Only in very limited circumstances (seasonal weather conditions etc.) would a student reside at a Day School.

51. What if I don't remember the name of the Day School I attended?

If you do not remember the School you attended, please review Schedule K of the Agreement, which may help you remember. If you remember the location of the school (Province or Territory or Community), this could help you recognize the name of the School. We also encourage you to speak to any family members, old classmates, or community workers who may know this information.

52. What if I don't remember the location of the Day School I attended?

Please review Schedule K of the Agreement, which lists all the Eligible Schools, including the location of the School. If you find your School on the list, it should have the location.

53. What if I don't see the school I attended on the list of eligible schools?

The list of eligible schools is now final. If you attended a school on this list, and experienced harm while attending the school, you are eligible to make a claim for compensation. The current list of schools can be found on Schedule K.

54. Do you have a list of which Day School(s) I attended?

No. The Administrator and Class Counsel do not have a list of the Federal Indian Day School(s) or Federal Day School(s) that you attended. If you are unsure about which school(s) you attended, we encourage you to speak to any family members, old classmates, or community workers who may know that information. You may also review Schedule K which lists all the Eligible Schools, and may help you recognize the name of the School.

55. How can I differentiate a Federal and a Provincial Day school?

A list of Federal Indian Day Schools and Federal Day Schools can be found on Schedule K.

If your school is not on the list, it is likely a Provincial Day School or another type of institution.

56. I don't remember the years and / or how old I was when I attended the School

In order to be eligible for compensation under the Settlement Agreement, the class member must have attended an Eligible Day School, during a time when it was funded, managed, and controlled by the Federal Government of Canada. This is why it is important to try and remember the time when you attended the school. It does not have to be an exact date – you can provide just the year or how old you were when you attended.

57. I went to more than one School

If you attended more than one school, please list each separately on the Claim Form. The Claim Form has space for information related to two (2) schools. If you attended more than two schools, please list the same details requested on the Claim Form, but on a separate piece of paper and attach to your Claim Form.

58. I don't understand what is meant by other / prior settlements and I don't know if it applies to me

Prior settlements or other settlements mean a different individual or class action that was brought against Canada, for the same abuse and harm at a Federal Indian Day School(s) or Federal Day School(s) as you are describing in this Claim Form.

You must have either received money from Canada and/or released Canada for abuses suffered at a Federal Indian Day School through the previous individual settlement.

Important: this does not include Indian Residential School payments.

If you are unsure, please contact Class Counsel – Gowling WLG by calling 1-844-539-3815 or emailing dayschools@gowlingwlg.com.

59. Why do I need a witness? What if I don't want anyone to see what I have in my claim?

In order for the Claim Form to be complete and eligible, the Claimant's signature must be witnessed by someone who is not the Claimant.

You do not have to show the witness what you have included in the Claim Form. The witness must only see the Claimant sign this page. They are not required to read the Claim Form or to verify the accuracy of the events described in the Claim Form. You can separate the witness page 5 from the rest of the claim, sign in front of the witness and have the witness sign, date and complete contact details on the page. Afterwards, put the completed page back in the Claim Form and send to the Administrator along with all other required information and documents.

60. Who can I list on my claim as the witness?

A witness can be any adult you know – family, friend, co-worker, doctor or any other individual who knows you.

61. Do I need to include all the details for the witness or can the person just sign?

The entire section must be completed by the witness – their full name (first and last), address, and contact details. The section must also be signed, and dated.

62. How do I know what level to select?

It is up to you to select a level to claim. Please review the details, descriptions and instructions included on all pages that describe the different levels and the information requested for each level. This can be found in Part 4 (page 6) and Part 5 (page 7 – page 11). Before you decide on a level, it is important to read through all these sections and think about your personal experience. This will help you decide what is the appropriate level for you. Class members cannot re-submit and/or modify a level selection once the claim has been submitted to the Claims Administrator.

Please remember, you must only select one level that best describes the experience you had while attending the Indian Day School. If you submit a claim form without a level clearly selected, this will cause delays in processing of your claim, because your claim will be considered incomplete and the Administrator will send you a letter asking for your level.

If at any time, you feel you are experiencing emotional distress and want to talk to someone, you can call the Hope for Wellness Hotline at 1-855-242-3310. There will be someone there to listen and provide counselling.

If you have any questions about how to fill out the form, including how to select the appropriate Level, you can contact your Class Counsel at dayschools@gowlingwlq.com or 1-844-539-3815. They are there to answer your questions at no cost to you and to help you make sure you fill out all your Claim Form properly so you can receive your share of the settlement.

You can also contact the Claims Administrator Call Centre at 1-888-221-2898 where the agents will be able to explain what each section means and what documentation is required depending on the Level you select.

A “narrative” is a description of the abuse or harm you experienced while attending the Indian Day School(s). You must complete this part of the Claim Form if you are claiming Level 2, 3, 4 or 5. You are not required to complete this part of the Claim Form if you are claiming Level 1.

When writing your narrative, please include names, places and dates as best you can remember. Also, please include enough detail and description of the events that occurred to you so that the person reading can understand why the level you selected is appropriate. If you received medical attention or tried to get medical attention for that incident, then or since then, please write down that information as well. It does not have to be long, but try to write down as many details as you can remember to support the level you are claiming.

70. What if I can't fit my entire narrative on the space provided in the Claim Form?

If the space provided on the Claim Form is not enough, please add as many pages as you need and attach them to your final Claim Form. Please label each additional page with “Part 5A”.

The individuals who caused you to suffer could be anyone who worked at the school (for example, teachers), or anyone who also went to the school (for example, other students).

The type of abuse you suffered could have been verbal (for example, comments or threats) or physical (for example, assault) or sexual (for example, touching of private parts), and the harm you suffered because of the abuse could have resulted in different types of injury.

For more details and examples, please refer to page 6 and page 7 of the Claim Form.

If at any time, while reviewing or thinking about this, you feel you are experiencing emotional distress and want to talk to someone, you can call the Hope for Wellness Hotline at 1-855-242-3310. There will be someone there to listen and provide counselling.

72. What if I can't remember the names and / or positions of the people who hurt me when I went to school?

If you are submitting a claim for Level 1, 2 or 3, the name(s) and / or position(s) of the individuals who hurt you may be provided only if you remember – that is, they are not required.
